Active Hope: Nourishing Our Capacity to Act for Life – Work that Reconnects Retreat
November 24-30, 2019

JiLL Marie Lynch, along with Frank O'Neill will be facilitating a Thanksgiving Week Retreat at Casa Del Sol: Active Hope: Nourishing Our Capacity to Act For Life, based on the Work That Reconnects principles and practices designed by renowned activist, eco-philosopher and author, Joanna Macy, and her many collaborators. Designed for 12-16 participants, this week-long workshop will be lively, experiential, reflective, and restorative. Nature-based activities, mindfulness practices, heart-centered communication, grief & gratitude, and opportunities for self-expression are all part of the deal! Engagement in the world we care so deeply about include the intersectionality of so many injustices. All of our environments—climate, social justice and equity of numerous kinds are part of the interlocking system of oppression that requires structural change. During this time of multiple cultural and global messes, we offer practices and possibilities for living and working from a more whole, web of life, paradigm!

JiLL and Frank bring their contemplative and joyful practices to the week. They value and embody the healing power of unconditional presence they consider essential to transformational work.

The cost of this retreat is all-inclusive fee (6 nights, 21 meals + program), from $ 1100.00 to $ 1820.00 based on lodging preferences. Early bird price, $100 off for those who register and pay in full by October 31, 2019. For questions, please contact Jill Marie Lynch 608-245-1399, jill@wildpeacerealdirt.com (<mailto:jill@wildpeacerealdirt.com>). November 10-14, 2019

This Circle of Trust® Retreat led by Courage & Renewal® facilitators Valerie Brown and Carol Kortsch is designed for spiritual directors to explore issues of transition, vocation, relationship, life passion, purpose, and the unfolding stirrings of Spirit. A year-end restorative retreat in the same landscape which inspired iconic artist Georgia O'Keeffe. With Heart of Devotion, three powerful facilitators have joined forces to create an experiential immersion into the sacred art of Becoming.

Rumi famously wrote, "This being human is a guest house – every morning a new arrival." Sometimes we need spiritual tools and allies in order to meet the "new arrival" of a challenge or season of living. The Heart of Devotion spiritual retreat is for those seeking to navigate major life changes. This retreat is the safe, healing container required for contemplation, connection, radical self-care and the realization of your own "true north." The Heart of Devotion Retreat provides a curated environment designed to heighten awareness and conscious connection through your own deep listening and embodiment. Our program addresses body, mind and spirit through periods of silent meditation, devotional voice, daily yoga, community living, fun, celebration, and outdoor activity at the historic retreat house of Casa del Sol on Ghost Ranch.

Earlybird discount available until Sept. 1st: $895 for 6 days/ $1650 for both weeks.

Transportation not included. You must register for Earlybird price before September 1st.
